CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser; subject to the reservation that the Auctioneer shall have the right of regulating the amounts of the biddings; of rejecting any bid; of determining in his absolute discretion all disputes upon any matter arising under these conditions; and also of bidding for, withdrawing, consolidating, dividing, or altering the order of any of the lots.

2.—The lots will be sold with all faults and errors of description; and whilst every care has been taken to ensure that the same are accurately described, the Auctioneer or Vendor does not guarantee the genuineness of any article or lot, and no compensation will be made for any misdescription or error of quantity. The lots shall, immediately upon the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk and expense of the respective purchasers, who shall, when required, give in their names and addresses and pay in cash a deposit of 25 per cent. or such further sum as the Auctioneer may demand; and any deposit so paid shall be deemed paid upon and applicable towards payment for all or any of the lots which may be bought by such purchaser. No transfer of lots will be recognised or any alteration made in the sale book in respect thereto.

3.—A purchaser shall not have the right to avail himself of any set off or other plea for non-payment of his purchase money, either against the Auctioneer or his principals; but shall be liable for any unpaid purchase money whether the lots have been removed or not.

4.—The Auctioneer will not be responsible for any loss occasioned by fire, accident, or other cause.

5.—The purchasers shall pay for and remove their several lots at their own expense on Thursday and Friday, 15th and 16th of September, and shall be liable to the Auctioneer on breach of this condition for any cost of cartage, storage, or other expense occasioned by such default. No lots will be delivered under any circumstance until payment in full has been made in cash.

6.—If any purchaser object or refuse to comply with the above Conditions or any of them, his deposit money (if any) shall be forfeited, and the lots uncleared may, at the option of the Auctioneer, be resold without notice, either by public auction or private contract, and any loss occasioned by such re-sale, together with all expenses attendant thereon, or arising under these Conditions, shall be paid by the defaulter and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

This Condition is, however, without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, and the entry of the clerk in the sale book, verified by the Auctioneer, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and binding alike upon Vendor and Purchaser.

H. J. BROMLEY, Auctioneer.

N.B.—Any damage done to the premises by the removal of the lots must be paid for by the respective purchasers.
